All the memories made, pictures taken, and smiles captured. This yearbook is made up of what makes life at Franklin High so great. Whether it be your freshman year or senior year we are the panthers and we are down in history. It has been a historic year making the transition into our new FHS. Even though it has been hard to watch our memorable 'main hall' and familiar field house leave us for good, it is all a clean slate from here. This is now

YOUR STORY

And together this is the story of everyone that walks through our halls. This is

Class Advisors' Letter

To the Class of 2015,

A teacher gave this poem to one of us in high school:

To laugh is to risk appearing the fool.

To weep is to risk appearing sentimental.

To reach for another is to risk involvement.

To expose your ideas, your dreams before a crowd is to risk their loss.

To love is to risk not being loved in return.

To live is to risk dying.

To believe is to risk despair.

To try is to risk failure.

But risks must be taken, because the greatest hazard in life is to risk nothing.

The people who risk nothing, do nothing, have nothing, are nothing.

They may avoid suffering and sorrow but they cannot learn, feel, change, grow, love, live.

Chained by their attitudes they are slaves; they have forfeited their freedom.

Only a person who risks is free.

Unknown Author

Best of luck, it has been a pleasure working with you as your advisors.

We encourage you to be risk-takers in all aspects of your lives!

Class of 2015 Officers

*President: Conor Lemanowicz
Treasurer: Margaret Hardin*

*Vice President: Philip Henault
Secretary: Daniel Robert*

A note from your officers...

We, your class officers, would like to thank you for all the support we have received over the years. We have overcome a lot as a class and are incredibly grateful for your trust and confidence. It has been an honor to work with you all. We sincerely wish you all the best.

A letter from the Class President of 2015:

Dear Class of 2015,

I have thought long and hard about what to write in this letter. I wanted to give you all a meaningful message that I truly believe in and as I contemplated, I looked back on our early lives. I see that we have come so far, we have done so much. Yet, when compared to what we will accomplish, we have barely left a dent. I honestly believe that each of the 399 students in the Class of 2015 has the capacity to leave an important mark on the world. We don't all need to cure cancer or end starvation. Simply by showing a desire to help others, we can permanently alter the world.

We must not limit our dreams. All of us will suffer setbacks and all of us will feel the weight of the world pressing down upon us. Still, onward is the forward march of progress. Our only true failure would be to stop fighting for greatness. As a generation, we represent the innovation of the world. Upon us is the responsibility to foster mankind. Some choose to look at all the maladies throughout the world and accept desperate hopelessness. Others, the leaders, see opportunity to better mankind. We are all leaders. Even in the smallest sense, we can all positively affect the life of another. If we succeed in spreading positivity, we have made the world a better place to live.

I have been truly honored to serve this class over the years. It has been an amazing experience. I could not imagine a more wonderful group of people. I have enjoyed having the opportunity to work with all of you. I feel extremely lucky to have been surrounded by such positive and intelligent people. Already, I love to imagine our first reunion down the road. I truly am incredibly proud of this class and I cannot wait to see and hear of all the fantastic things we accomplish. As we go into the world, I wish every single person the best of fortune. I will always consider you all to be my friends.

All the best,

Conor Lemanowicz

Senior Superlatives 2015

▲ Best Dressed

Walking through the hallways of FHS, you'll see an array of outfits. Callahan Harmon and Brooke LePage took the award for Franklin's best dressed seniors. Both known for wearing magazine-worthy ensembles, Brooke and Cal were an easy pick for this superlative.

Once the braces came off, Justin Bates and Haley Frank dazzled the halls of Franklin High with their bright white smiles. If you're looking for a happy face, just look for Haley and Justin to brighten up your day.

▼ Best Smile

▲ Best Eyes

Classic blue eyes steal the spotlight this year. Benjamin Chaffee and Jessica Garrigan wowed the class with their sparkling eyes.

Is that Kourtney Kardashian walking down the hall? No - it's Adrena Santorsola! With her long brown hair, tan skin, and dark eyes, Adrena is commonly mistaken for the reality star.

Best Celebrity

▼ Look Alike

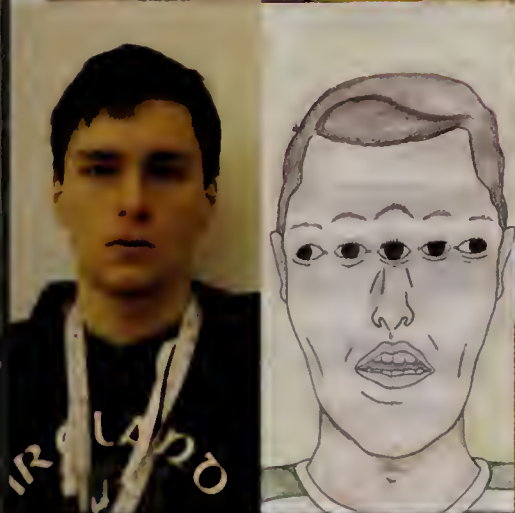

▲ Best Celebrity Look Alike

Time for a double take: senior Sean Cole has a striking resemblance to football player Mike Glennon. Try not to mistake Franklin Hockey's #27 for Tampa Bay Buccaneers' #8.

Heavily involved with FAA, Christine Delay has always found a home within the arts at FHS. Her photographs continue to wow the Franklin community as she was employed to capture the varsity football moments this past season.

Next Van Gogh ▼

Next Van Gogh ▲

With his simplistic but surreal drawings, Nolan Long is bound to draw you in with his artwork. An FAA veteran, Nolan has grown into an accomplished artist.

Both figureheads of student government and two of Franklin's favorite students, Brooke LePage and Justin Bates are the epitome of a typical FHSer. You can always expect a smile from Justin and Brooke when you pass them in the hall.

Mr and Ms FHS ▼

Most Contagious Laugh ▲

A student in class cracks a joke, and the whole class erupts in laughter. That distinct laugh - the one that causes the whole class to laugh even harder - belongs to none other than Mark Donaldson and Kelly Giralamo.

"Hey, can you give me a ride?" is almost implied when Kyle Wardrop or Taylor Brothers approaches you in the hallway. They both took their time getting their license, so, at 2:05 watch out - they may be walking your way.

Always Needs a Ride ▼

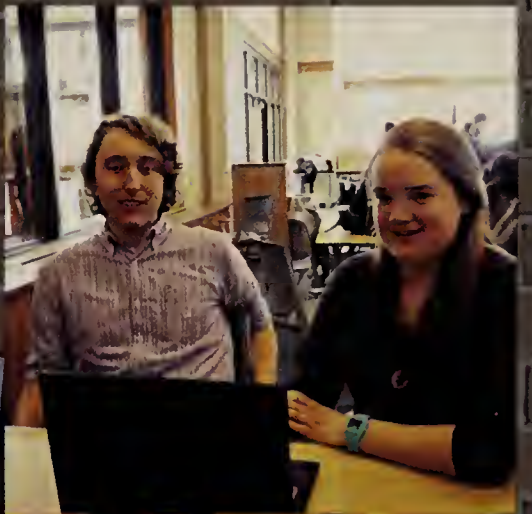

Drama King and Queen ▲

High school has drama. You'd know if you were friends with Mike Perrin and Erika Kucks. They always seem to turn the smallest situations into emotion-filled stories everybody has to know.

New technology was a highlight of the new school this year. Both familiar with computer programming and having a love for technology, Peter Stanwicks and Jenn Conyers were voted the class' biggest techies.

Biggest Techie ▼

Best Hair ▲

A lot of high schoolers will spend lots of time perfecting their hairdo for the day. Others, like Graham Hancock and Amelia Gallagher, were born with hair worthy enough to win best hair. Looks like most seniors are jealous of Graham's styled blonde hair and Amelia's curly red locks.

When the senior class is 400 students large, it's difficult to know everybody. Out of all those students, the two we wish we all knew better were Conor Bond and Adrena Santorsola.

Wish You Knew Better

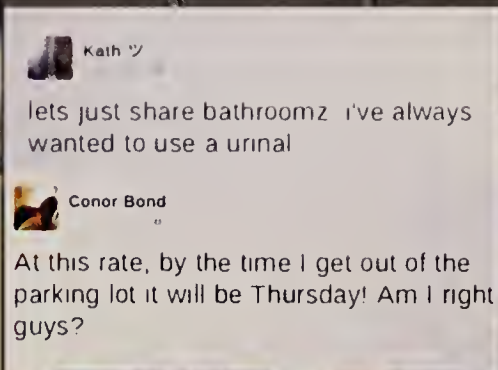

▲ Most Gullible

"If you say gullible slowly, it sounds like oranges." Did you try it? Nick Morris and Erika Kucks might have. Easily fooled by simple jokes and tricks, Erika and Nick were voted Class of 2015's 'Most Gullible'

Twitter was this year's most popular social media site. Both with over 400 followers, Conor Bond and Kathryn Cunningham take the crown for funniest tweets. They mastered the art of making people laugh with only 140 characters or less.

▼ Funniest Tweets

▲ Most Likely to be on SNL

Noah St. Cyr and Taylor Watson have added a certain humor to the productions such as Cabaret and Oskey since sophomore year. Both taking theater classes since freshman year, SNL would be lucky to have them.

Mike Sullivan and Sarah Weilandt were devastated by FHS' new no-cell-phone policy this year. Whether they're posting on Instagram, checking Twitter, or staying caught up in a group message, you can always find Michael and Sarah on their beloved iPhones.

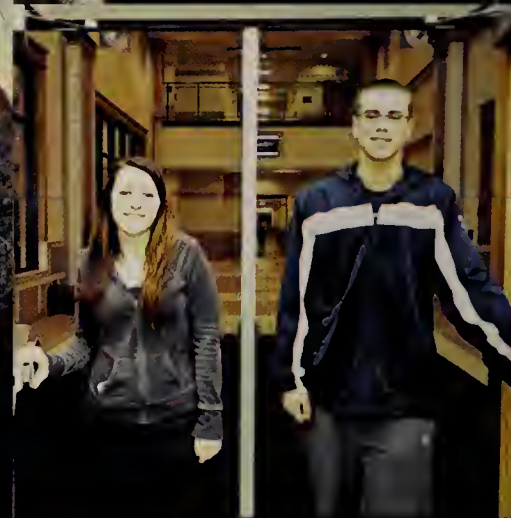

▼ Most Addicted to Their Cell Phone

▲ Most Musical
Andrew Samson and Jess Ward are both veterans in the music department. Andrew has a natural talent for the sax while Jess dominates the open mic nights with her unique voice.

Emily Jeffries and Mike Sullivan can always be seen flirting with someone. While Mike has no problem talking to any girl, Emily can be seen giggling and flipping her hair while talking to guys.

▼ Biggest Flirt

▲ Biggest Case of Senioritis

June 5th. Graduation. Senior year could not have felt longer to Chris Williams and Emma Yell. Endless hours in class, fantasizing about getting their diploma. Emma and Chris will be the first to celebrate when we graduate.

"Selfie" was added to the dictionary in 2014. This trending style of self-photography was a favorite of Matt Mancini and Sarah Weilandt. If you catch them taking a picture, they will most likely be taking a selfie.

Most Likely to Take a Selfie ▼

Best Person to Bring on a Deserted Island ▲

Hopefully you won't ever be stuck on a deserted island. If somehow you are, be sure to bring either Meg Hardin or Kyle Pandiscio. With their quirky personalities and natural ingenuity, you won't need to worry about survival or entertainment on the island.

Did you hear? Did you hear? If you're looking for the latest rumor, joke, or story, find Jake Bontempo and Maddie Bressler. They'll always be ready to gossip.

Biggest Gossip ▼

Class Procrastinator ▲

Ben Burke and Kathryn Cunningham have become masters of procrastination. You'll find them doing assignments as late at 10 minutes before they're due, or not at all!

As we conclude our senior year, we are all very familiar with people asking what we want to do with our lives. While many of us are still in a gray area, Conor Lemanowicz and Maddy Fields always knew. Conor, aspiring to become the President of the United States, while Maddy features on Broadway.

Biggest Dreamer ▼

Teacher's Pet ▲

Although they will deny it, teachers have their favorites. Always making conversation and asking questions in class, Maddie Bressler and Thomas Cerier were this year's biggest teacher's pets.

Those who knew Michelle Reinertson freshman year, knew she was quiet. Michelle has since joined the FAA amongst other extracurricular activities here at FHS. Those who knew her before can say she has grown more comfortably sarcastic over the years.

Most Changed ▼

Most Changed ▲

Anyone who has known Nolan Long knows that his appearance has changed over the years. However his sense of humor has not changed, he is still sarcastic and witty.

Playing Varsity Soccer and Lacrosse has earned Nicole Ellin the title of Franklin's most athletic senior girl. Her love for sports has lead her to continue her athletic career at Bard next year.

▼ Most Athletic

▲ Most Athletic

Andrew Parent was voted one of this year's most athletic students. When he's not playing football or baseball, you can find him in the weight room lifting and training for the next season. He will be playing football at the University of New Haven next year.

Feeling down? Seniors Cam SanClemente and Sammi Conway will be sure to brighten your day with their positive attitudes and great senses of humor.

▼ Most Likely to Brighten Your Day

▲ Most Hazardous to Pedestrians

High school students have a reputation for being bad drivers. Franklin High's worst? Sydney Zuckerman and Nick Burgos. The numerous dents on their cars and long list of small accidents will make you want to steer clear of them on the roads.

Inseparable, Aimee Trotter and Maria LeVie were voted this year's best girlfriends. You can't find one without the other.

▼ Best Girlfriends

▲ Best Friends Boys

Noah Ferris and Lockey Ross's friendship dates back to the days of Best Buddies at Annie Sullivan middle school. You can always find them together sharing a laugh.

Everyone has a nickname. Johanna "Jojo" Gray and Mark "Scotty" Donaldson have the classes' most well known. While Jojo is just a shortening of Johanna, Scotty gets his nickname from his Scottish background.

▼ Best Nickname

▲ Cutest Couple

Mason Saunders and Maddie Price can always be seen together in the halls of FHS. With their "Barbie and Ken" appearance, they earned the title of cutest couple.

FHS' brightest science students Caleigh Smith and Oliver Grella have proven themselves capable of achieving many scientific feats, giving us hope that one day, in the future, they will be able to cure cancer.

Most Likely to Cure Cancer ▼

Most Likely to be Late to Graduation ▲

Known for being late to any class, party, or sports practice, you can count on Nate Zaccardi and Sydney Zuckerman to be late to graduation.

Following in the footsteps of her older sister, Bethy Palladini earns this year's best ride title with her red Ford Mustang.

Best Ride ▼

Best Ride ▲

Dan Robert is known for driving the finest of vehicles, especially for a high school student. Here, he shows off the newest addition to his garage, a Dodge Charger.

Known for their enthusiasm for learning, its easy to see Abby Normandin and Phil Henault with their own classroom some day.

Most Likely to Return as a Teacher ▼

Most Likely to be Seen on Broadway ▲

Well known for their powerful voices and a natural knack for acting, Graham Hancock and Maddy Fields hope to be seen on stage one day in a Broadway production.

Showing success in high school, Caleigh Smith and Dan Robert are bound for success in the future. Their economic awareness and natural talent will earn them millions one day.

Most Likely to be a Millionaire ▼

Most Likely to Become President ▲

No surprise that class president Conor Lemanowicz was voted future president with his dynamic leadership skills and interest in political affairs. Gabriela Blood, also known for her public speaking abilities and leadership qualities, looks like a great candidate for America's executive office.

Priceless

what do we pay for?

Concert tickets, gas, Chipotle, clothes, coffee. Money disappears when you're in high school. With the before-school Elizabeth's runs and the half-day Chipotle/Panera stops it's hard not to.

One of the most popular concerts happening yearly, Boston Calling, is around $100 dollars per ticket. Rather than a night in the city, a night at the movies is $12 a ticket and around $6 for popcorn.

With gas prices at an all time low since the early 2000's it has been a fabulous time at the gas pump. Paying only $2.01 per gallon feels a lot better than the almost $4 it was less than a year ago.

Senior Project is a chance for students to demonstrate the knowledge, skills and maturity they have achieved throughout their school career thus far. Students choose an area of study that interests them and then work within that area to gain practical experience before graduating. Senior Project is an exciting and unique opportunity to help students to determine their future plans and to achieve professional and personal goals.

This year Senior Project students are participating in the fields of education, business, science, medicine and much more. Students will be completing their internships in the following locations:

FHS CLUB HIGHLIGHTS

Community Service Club

<< The club volunteered at Gillette Stadium during a Patriots Game. This consisted of working at a restaurant stand where about 13% of proceeds were donated to the Tanzania School Foundation, which helps fight poverty in Africa.

^^They also attended the "Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk" in Boston. It is the largest one-day breast cancer walk in the nation! They helped by setting up, preparing snack bags, passing out water, and being route monitors.

Mock Trial

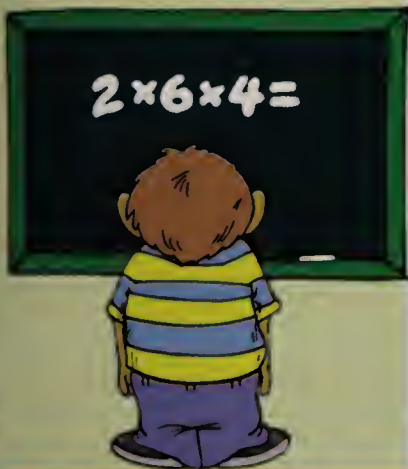

>>This year, the Franklin High School Mock Trial team ended with the title of Regional Champions for the fifth year in a row. They also were the first FHS Mock Trial team to make it to the Final 4 out of 163 teams in the state.

Here at Franklin High School, students have many different interests. They are lucky enough to have a large variety of clubs to choose from.
Honestly, there is something for everyone!

Math Team

>>This year, the math team placed 12th out of 36 in the Southeastern Massachusetts Mathematics League.

Peer Leadership

>>This year, Peer Leadership participated in Light up a Life once again. They raised $9200, surpassing their goal of $8500! A total of 30 families were helped with buying gifts for the holidays. It truly was the most wonderful time of the year.

Drama Club

>>This year, Drama Club put on the production "Rebel Without a Cause", which went on to Dramafest. They proceeded to continue to the next round of the competition.

DECA

Students from FHS took on yet another year at the DECA conference where they presented their business propositions to judges while competing with other towns. Students spent a long period of time coming up with their projects. Every single group from Franklin made it to states where they will compete for number one in the nation!

Senior Marketing Students being led by one of our business teachers, Mr. Carmo getting ready to take off to the Deca regionals competition.

Cal Harmon and Mike Sullivan established their very own company "Arrow & Oar" where they sell T-shirts to the FHS community. You can see many students supporting their company by having their logo on their chromebooks, folders, notebooks and other belongings.

Best Buddies

Since 1995, Best Buddies High Schools has paired students with intellectual and developmental disabilities in one-to-one friendships with high school students. In the past, individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities have not had the opportunity to have friends outside of their own special education classroom. By introducing Best Buddies into public and private high schools, participants are crossing the invisible line that too often separates those with disabilities from those without.

Best Buddies High Schools also offers students a unique opportunity to develop leadership skills. With the support of school faculty and Best Buddies staff, students lead and direct the chapters in their schools.

MUSIC

A Full House

Franklin High School is blessed with one of the best music programs in any high school. From the immensely talented students that study under the very knowledgeable music teachers to the always supportive community to the school's state-of-the-art facilities, this school is the place to be for students interested in anything about music. Franklin music groups are at least equally successful in competitions compared to schools whose groups practice much more often than ours, and the students to come out of FHS's music program often are accepted into the best music schools in the country to pursue music education at a higher level. Franklin High School has created a very special music program inclusive of every player at every level of skill, giving every musician at the school something to look forward to. Franklin High students are very lucky to be at a school that truly appreciates how vital music education is.

WELCOME to the new fhs

AUDITORIUM

The auditorium, which seats 850 people, is a major highlight of the new building.

Franklin High School students walked into a brand new building at the start of the 2014 school year. "When I first walked in I was astounded by the school's size and beauty," says senior Megan Rogers. Known as the 'New FHS', this highly-anticipated building opened its doors in August 2014. Students were lucky to have brand new technology and equipment right at their fingertips. The New FHS boasted one of the largest multimillion dollar auditoriums in the state that seated over 830 people. In addition to the auditorium, a 100-seat college-style lecture hall saw meetings for large clubs and visiting speakers. The new gymnasium featured two full size basketball courts, as well as a 6,000 square foot indoor walking track, perfect for Franklin's extensive athletic program. With new equipment also came new technology. Franklin High began its one-to-one technology program, so every student was given a Google Chromebook to use in the classroom and at home. Each classroom was equipped with an Eno smart board and speaker system, giving teachers new abilities to share information to their students. One highlight of the building, the Franklin Broadcast Studio, contained high-end television production equipment similar to those used at CNN. This year saw the start of the FHS Morning News, a 5-minute announcement segment produced by students and broadcasted to the entire school each morning. Overall, the students enjoyed the luxuries that came with this brand new building. "My favorite part is the auditorium," says senior Andrew Samson. "There's room for everyone and the acoustics are amazing." Although the Old FHS will be missed, students were eager to start fresh and make new memories in the New FHS.

To the 2014 Panthers,

Thank you Coach Sidwell for coming out every day and being passionate about what you do and transferring that passion to us. Thank you to the players for coming out everyday and working hard to make this the best year possible. The season is not what we planned, but thank you all for coming out and making this season better than any other we have had. Those four football seasons have flown by and it was by far the best experience. I couldn't have asked for a better bunch of guys to play with. Thank you to all of you, and we will always be the true Boys of Fall. We will always be brothers and we will never forget this team as long as we live. These are the memories that we will cherish and remember forever. It goes by fast, so take advantage of every moment.

Thank you
Your 2014 Varsity Football Captains

"A Word From Your Captains"

Ladies, we want you all to know how much we love and care about each and every one of you. You girls have helped shape our team into twenty sisters, all incredible bonds that will not be forgotten. We wish we could stay with you all and cheer for Franklin High School forever, but that wouldn't be fair. It is now your turn to step up and lead a team that will change your life for the better. We cannot stress enough how fast your senior year will go. Do not take a day for granted, not a single practice, not standing on the sidelines at a football game in below zero weather, or a competition that rigged you by .25 points. Take it all in, and do not let it go because before you can even imagine it, it will be you as a senior leaving the team.

We could not be more proud of our season with you girls. We can truly say as your captains you never let us down, so don't let yourselves down. Keep pushing, keep working and never let yourself loose a skill. To our returning girls: Never get discouraged. Strength will come in all shapes and sizes. Remember what you have learned from us. The team comes first, negativity spreads, and determination will always pay off whether you win or lose. A team will be picked for you, but it is up to you to work together and use that bond to get you from Leagues, to Regionals, to States, and hopefully to Nationals. You won't get far without love and trust, so use that to your advantage.

Go Big Navy

With love,

Kaytee, Allie Luke, Jules, and Kaylie

Ladies,

What can we say to our young homies..We've come a long way from the incident at summer camp to playing in the muck at Remington. We are so proud of each one of you for bringing something special to the team which helped us in many ways, especially to beat Canton for the first time in seven years, and give Walpole a run for their money. We are going to miss you very much, but we know you will continue to do great things! We love you! Keep showing those other towns how Franklin Fhock trips.. (not talking about you Bodge)

The team being the team!

Coach Dowling
And Evan Vaughan

With the conclusion of this season came the conclusion of our time on the FHS Varsity Golf team. Through these four years, we have a lot to be proud of. During our freshman year, the team won the Division 2 South Sectional tournament. Following that season, we switched from Division 2 to Division 1. This transition was embraced by all and we had our best regular season, going 14-2. With the 2013 season came other challenges. Coach Williams retired after leading the team for many years and Coach Dowling took over. Six seniors had graduated and we, as a team, took on a new look with many new faces. Through all of this, we managed winning records the past two seasons and posted a 10-4 record this year. Our greatest win came in our final match as we defeated Oliver Ames and snapped their undefeated streak of two seasons. As we look back, we have every right to be proud of what FHS Golf has accomplished. We accepted the challenge of continuing the tradition of golf at FHS and can say that we were successful in doing so. We now pass the tradition on to the underclassmen and wish Coach Dowling and the team the best of luck next year. - Captains Ryan Shea, Steve Wyman, and Phil Lemaire

Can you dig it?

Dear girls, we as captains and as seniors, want to thank you for an amazing final season. We wouldn't have wanted to spend our last season with anyone else. Something special about our team, that we feel you all would agree with, is that we were not only close on the court, but off the court as well. There had been many instances where we were recognized by other coaches and referees for both the chemistry and enthusiasm we all demonstrated on the floor. Even in the tough moments of our season, we all stuck together as one. We are more than thankful to have been surrounded by such a great group of girls like you all this season. Thank you for everything. We will miss you all so much. Best of luck to you next season.

Rebel Without a Cause

While most students went holiday shopping for their friends and family, Peer Leaders shopped for kids they've never met. Light Up a Life is one of Peer Leadership's biggest events, and one of the school's favorite fundraisers. The leadership club partners with the Santa Foundation, a local charity organization, and purchases gifts for needy families during the holiday season. In November, Peer Leaders went to classrooms asking for donations from students and teachers. Students were encouraged to each bring in $5 to reach a school goal of $8500. A little friendly competition among the classes sparked enthusiasm for the event this year. "We always offer a small reward for the classroom that raises the most money. A few classes got really into it this year," says senior Amy Reynolds, who helped organize the event. "I love seeing students eager to donate to the cause." Although the competition was close, Mr. O'Connor's class came out on top by donating over $1300. Mr. Picillo's class took 2nd place by bringing in a little over $1200. Overall, the school raised $9200, and by December, it was time for the Peer Leaders to start shopping. "We get a wish list from each family that we support," explains junior Jill Sirignano, another head of the fundraiser. "The shopping part is pretty fun. It's not often I get to shop in toy stores and buy cute baby clothes." Peer Leaders spent a weekend shopping and gift wrapping the presents; in total they purchased well over 1000 gifts. To conclude the event and show the school where their donations went, the gifts were stacked and displayed for one day in front of the cafeteria. At the end of the day, all the gifts were bagged and dropped off at the Santa Foundation. They later were delivered to the local families to make their holiday season a memorable one.

"It's amazing to see all the presents we are able to provide and see the difference we can make in the community when we unite the school with a common goal."

February

Who doesn't love a day off from school? Although commuters and parents may not have been too happy when they heard a storm was coming, students were thankful for the blizzards. This year, within just a three week span,

Franklin High School had 5 days off from school due to the weather. Students quickly became familiar with the pre-snow day announcement rituals. The endless #CancelFranklin tweets, flipping back and forth between local news channels on TV, and waiting for the phone to ring were all signs of students eagerly waiting for the Franklin: Closed message. What did students do on the days off? Many caught up on sleep, taking advantage of the fact they didn't need to be at school at 7:30 am. Popular snow day also activities included sledding, watching Netflix, and eating lots of food. With the exception of the seniors, unfortunately all these snow days had to be made up in June, shortening the summer.

Fall Production 2014

CAUSE

This year the Drama Club put on their production of "Rebel Without a Cause", setting the bar in our brand new auditorium. Jim (Grant Spinella) and his family had just moved to the suburbs of Los Angeles trying to get away from their troubled lives. When starting a new school, Jim meets Plato (Peter Woislav) who begins to idolize Jim as a father figure. Amongst the new school and new friends, Jim meets Judy (Tara Lambert) who comes off as unimpressed with him. Claiming Judy as 'his' property, Buzz (Ryan Glynn) makes his presence known to the new kid. As Jim settles into his new life, he begins to run into trouble once again.

In February, they brought this production to DramaFest and won the preliminary round for the first time in years! Walking away with numerous acting awards, the cast deserved to move onto the state competition in March.

From the Captains...

Thanks to everyone for such a great season and high school career. We couldn't have asked for a better group of teammates or a better group of fans! Thanks to you guys, we will have many memories to remember this season, including beating Mansfield at the Garden, beating #1 ranked Newton North, Hodgkins claiming he's actually really smart, and all of Hype Squad's celebrations. You guys are the best family anyone could wish for. Here's a little bit of advice: defense wins championships; all because he flashes his lights, it doesn't necessarily mean he's letting you go; and always remember, WE EATIN FAM!

Dear Team,

We are so proud of what this team has accomplished this year. Working hard in practice and in games made all of us better players. We are so thankful to have played with such an amazing group of girls. The memories we have made these past four years playing basketball will stay with us throughout the rest of our lives. Best of luck to the team next year, you will accomplish great things.

SUPER 8

2015 was Franklin High's second year being in the Division 1 Hockomock League. After defeating Xaverian 3 to 2 in overtime, Franklin advanced into the Super 8. The varsity team finished the season with 17 wins, 4 losses, and 3 ties. Overall, this season was one that we will never forget.

Captains Letter:

Dear ladies,
This season has been full of heart, laughter and fights. We have formed a bond with 27 other girls with the same passion. Although we have a young team with 15 freshman, many of you have stepped up and shown that you care for your team and the game.

Coming out strong at the beginning of the season displayed a lot of character and dedication on and off the ice. We have been a family to each other. Even with a lot of injuries this season, no one gave up or used it as an excuse. Even though our season didn't go as planned, we are very proud of all of you. We hope that all you girls grow and work hard these next few years. Don't take one shift off. We will miss playing with all of you. Best of luck with your seasons to come. We will be in your hearts and in the stands.

It was an honor for us to lead the team we had this year. We had a lot of new kids trying out for the team and it was impressive to see how everyone improved over the season. It was great to see both JV and Varsity wrestlers showing up for the toughest practices and to see them always coming back for more. We had great coaches and they pushed each and every one of us past our limits everyday, and we would not have been the same team without them. This team has been so much fun and we hate that this year was the last time we could be a part of it. We wish you guys luck in the years to come and we know that if you continue to work as hard as you have, you'll bring another state title to the Franklin Wrestling Team!

Captains' Letter:

It has been such an honor to be your captains this season. We have grown so close together, and we couldn't have asked for a better team to end our high school swimming career with. We couldn't be prouder of all the accomplishments achieved this season, both as a team, as well as individually. Each meet, you ladies were setting personal records, qualifying for Sectionals and States, and proving to yourselves as well as others, that there's no team as dedicated, hardworking, passionate, supportive, or as fun to be around as the Franklin Varsity Swim Team.

The swim team has improved tremendously over the past six years, and we know it will only continue to grow. We wish you all the best in the future, and look forward to coming back and cheering you on!

This year FHS students and the Franklin Footlighters performed Shrek the Musical as the annual spring musical.

Some of the most talented students at FHS participated in the production of Shrek the Musical this year. The students brought this hilarious parody of famous fairytales to life with song and dance. The leads Grant Spinella, Maya Deschenes, Daniel Schratz, and Calvin Castaneda, along with a talented ensemble and the help of Mr. Sansoni and Ms Lonati, made this production a huge success.

Drama fest.

Each year, the participants in the winter play travel to another high school to perform their production in 'Dramafest'. Many high schools from around the state enter their productions and compete to go to the semifinal round.

This year the FHS Drama Club performed their version of 'Rebel Without a Cause' at the Attleboro High School. Despite the harsh competition, it was a hard earned win for the cast, and for the first time in years they advanced into the semifinal round. Many members of the cast performed so well that they recieved acting awards for their parts.

"I woke up this morning, you know... and the sun was shining, and it was nice and all that type of stuff. And the first thing, I saw you, and, uh, I said, 'Boy, this is gonna be one terrific day, so you better live it up, because tomorrow you'll be nothing.'

You see? And I almost was"

Reborn

One of the pinnae shows here at FHS, Oskey, provides the much needed eomedie relief as the year ends. After a long year of studying, the Seniors put on this production where they roast everything and anything about Franklin High School.

It is a product of hard work from Ms. Waters and the Senior volunteer performers. They work all spring to put on this show in May. Skits are developed from both traditional conepts that have been in Oskey for years as well as from new rules and soeial situations.

Over the years Mr. Franklin has grown into the tradition of Oskey, where the Senior Boys take on the ehallenge of representing the Senior Girls. With the girls' permission of eourse, the boy's dress up and answer questions the way that the girl that they are representing would. Run very much like a beauty pageant, there is a winner but not without numerous jokes beforehand.

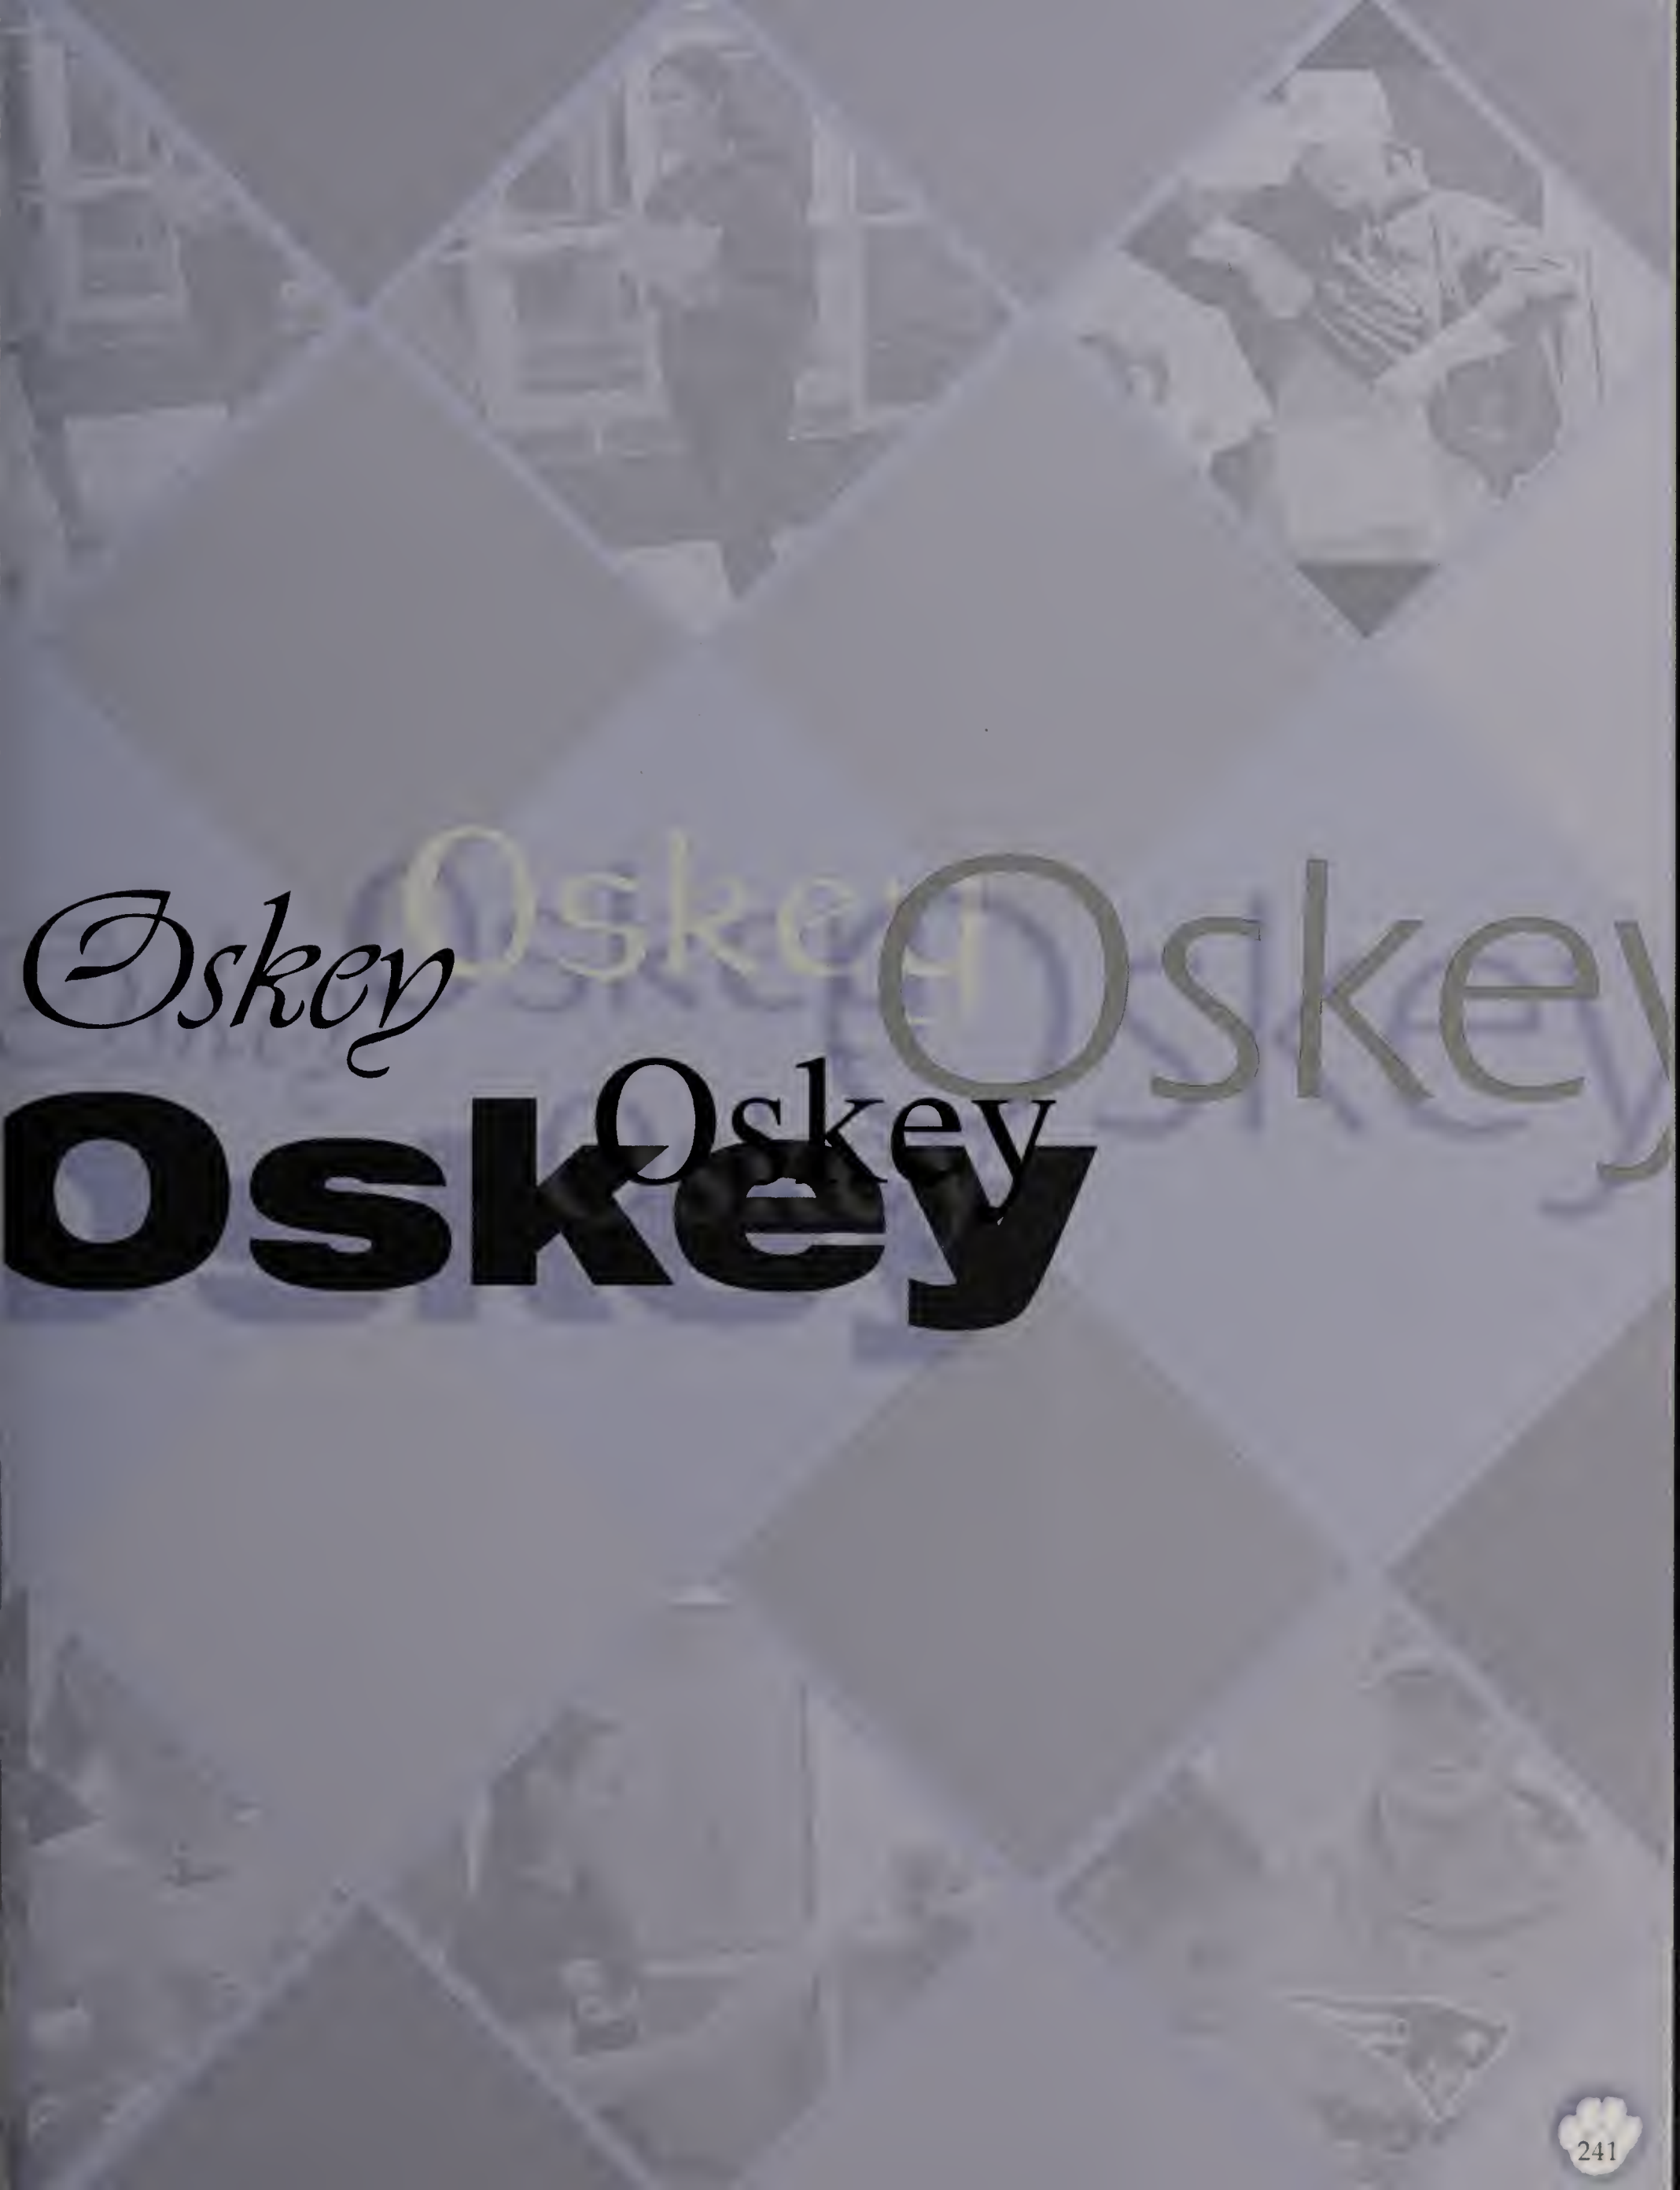

Seniors also have had skits that depiet relationships between teachers and different departments. For example, frequently the history department is serutinized for the relationships between Ms. Coady and Mr. Kelly.

This year, the Senior partieipants did numerous skits about the new policies at the new high school. Getting into the parking lot was a hot topic that prompted them to portray it as a rae. They highlighted the drivers that they believe are the worst in the morning.

One skit showed how Senior Girls try to find a Junior Boy to take them to Prom. It is hard to find dates to Prom, but it is even harder when you need to find someone to take you to this event.

A new addition to the Oskey lineup this year was Faeulty Speed Dating. This skit paired up different faculty and how they would reaet to different seenarios. Aleena Abraham as Ms. Chaekalackal stole the laughs with her perfect impersonation.

Fashion Trends

Senior girls: Long sweaters, leggings, & moccasins

Sophomore girls: sweaters, skinny jeans & boots

Junior girls: dresses & fashion boots

Senior boys: flannels & boot shoes

As we walk through the halls we can see the varied tastes and fashion trends of the students here at Franklin High. After three years of trying to dress nice for school, the seniors have finally resolved to moccasins and yoga pants for their last-year attire. While the Juniors can be seen wearing more in-style and tight fitting clothes. The Sophomores have a more in-between style, pairing a plain pair of jeans with nice blouses or sweaters. The Freshman, however, don't have many people to impress their first year in a new school. The girls stick with their Hollister sweatshirts and sweatpants while the boys will still be wearing their beloved basketball shorts even in the dead of Winter.

Senior girls: dresses and tights

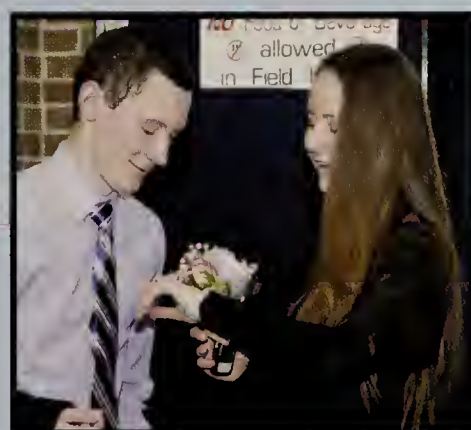

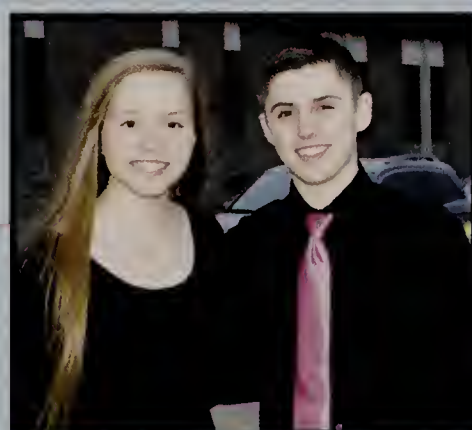

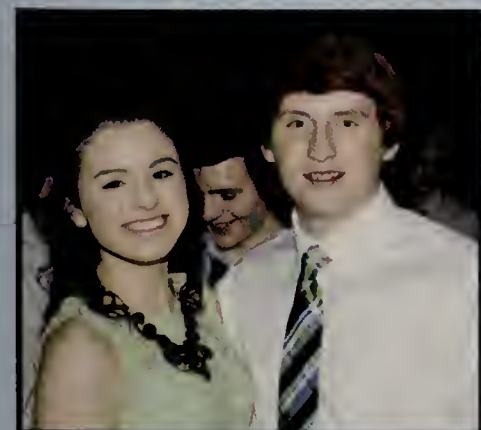

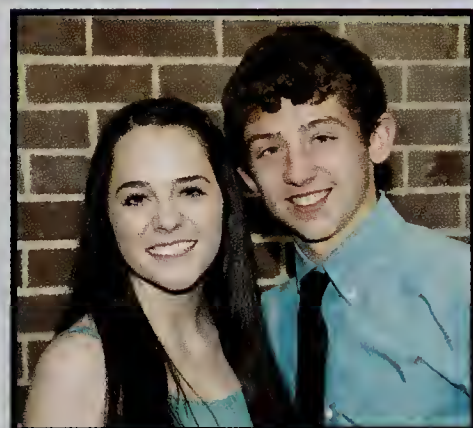

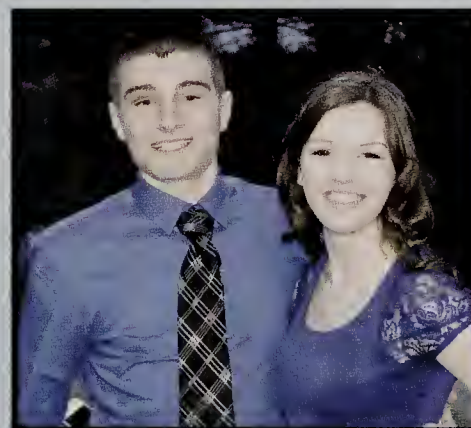

Freshman boys: Nike T-shirts, basketball shorts, & sneakers

We have been extremely privileged to wear Franklin High School baseball uniforms for the last four years. We will miss our teammates, coaches, and the Franklin community dearly. Thank you to our head coach, Coach Brown. You brought your collegiate skills from Wheaton to FHS two years ago and have helped us improve ever since. Thank you to our assistant coach, Coach MacCreery, for dealing with most of us for all four years. We were fortunate enough to have you there for us at the freshman, junior varsity, and varsity level. Thank you to our hitting coach, Coach Lerner, for all the time he gives each player to work on his mechanics and approach at the plate. Thank you to our other assistant coaches, Coach Edmunds, Coach Ambrosini, and Coach Getchell for giving up their time to come to games and practices to share some knowledge and laughs with us. A special thank you to Harvey Nasuti, Jimmy Lee, and all the friends and family that have come to support us at every game. We will all miss the fun times this team has had at tent outs and on the field. To the underclassmen, thank you all for being such great teammates and for a memorable season; all of you remember, what happens at tent outs stays at tent outs. Continue to work hard and wear the Franklin jersey with pride.

Mildly concussed. I am now known as the poster child for why we were always told not to lean back in our seats.

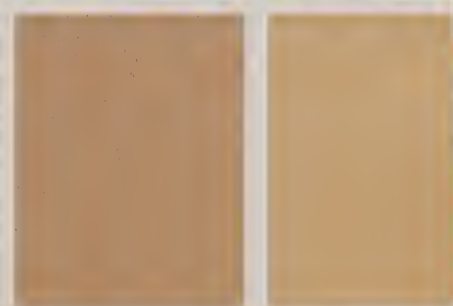

Thank You

This yearbook would not be possible without a select few that took the time to help us document the 2014-2015 school year. As we see our first year in the new high school start to come to a close, we look back and remember all of the achievements that we brought here. With the help of many people we were able to get full coverage on both extracurricular activities as well as countless sporting events; including both of the drama productions, the 'Super 8' hockey competition, Friday night football games, and countless other activities.

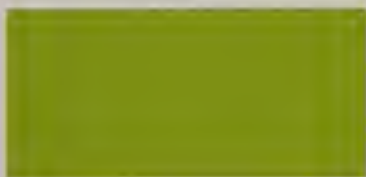

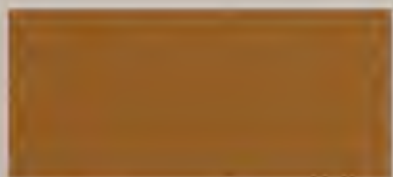

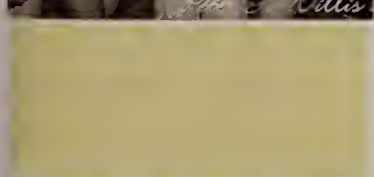

MAKING memories

We would like to thank: Peter Willis, Paul Vicario, the parents of Smug Mug, Ms. Gannon, Mrs. Downie, Ivy Patton, Ms. Buck, Ms. Jacobson, Chris Spelman, Joy Woomer, and Scott Bump. We would also like to thank and credit Dave Arnold for giving us an amazing Rattle City picture and Ryan Lanigan for donating to us an amazing picture of our Boys' Ice Hockey team and Mrs. Griffin for all of the girls hockey pictures. We would also like to thank our accomodating faculty for all their help. We could not have done this without the help of captains and leaders of clubs, sports and other members of our school for information, pictures and journalism.

Yearbook Staff

2014 - 2015

Particular. Efficient. Organized. All of which are qualities of a productive yearbook staff. Did the Oskey staff have these qualities this year? Not really. We might not have been the most efficient yearbook staff, but we truly enjoyed capturing every moment of your school year. We hope you enjoy looking back at these pictures and remembering all the cherished moments of high school. Enthusiastic. Audacious. Ambitious. These are qualities of a successful yearbook crew. That is what we are. And we hope these qualities are reflected on the pages of this book. Years from now, when you blow the dust of this book to show your family, we hope these pictures make you smile. Thank you for giving us the opportunity to highlight your year.

Teacher Highlights Mr. Leighton

"My academic journey started in Mrs. Small's kindergarten class in Winthrop, Maine. I learned to read, write and not lock Jannelle Catlin in the closet at the end of the day on a Friday. (Oops) Growing up in a metropolis of 2,000 people, I learned at a young age to fight to survive, except of course for the time I actually got into a fight. It started between me and twin brothers and ended with me getting pummeled by a girl (long story). In high school, I joined every club or team that would take me. My classmates voted me class clown and teacher's pet. (I like to think of myself as the "cool" nerd.) After graduating high school, I was off to the University of Maine where I learned many valuable lessons. For example, if you go to college for 7 years, you do not automatically become a doctor (so disappointing). I had the opportunity to do my student teaching and was off on my career. Well, by off, I mean I eventually became a teacher. In the meantime, I dabbled in many careers: bartender, college fundraiser, fraternity advisor, and Olympian (OK I worked for the Olympics). I also travelled to Yugoslavia, Georgia, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts. It is in teaching that I found my passion. I challenge you to find something that you are passionate about and make it your career. You only get to live once, so make the most of it. A smile and a laugh will take you far. Seize each day and make it yours. I wish you all the best of luck!"

Teacher Highlights Mr. DiBona

"A long time ago in a galaxy far, far away Mr. DiBona completed his high school education before heading to college and graduate school. Before he became a teacher, he worked in corporate America within the motion picture industry where he was soon bored to tears by making a billionaire additional billions. Therefore, he changed careers to pursue the passion for literature and language that was fostered in his earlier college education. His first forays into education were at the college level: UMass Boston, Suffolk University, Massasoit Community College and Cambridge College respectively.

However, Mr. DiBona found the deepest rewards in teaching a younger population of high school students, especially those at Franklin High School where he has sought to inspire young minds for the past eight years. Since his first years at FHS when he taught seniors and sophomores, Mr. DiBona has continued to teach as part of the freshman collaborative. His experiences there have been among the most gratifying of his career. Now he also runs the Philosophy Club, the Literary Guild, the Anti-Bullying Club, and next year he is working with current freshmen students to introduce an after school writing club at FHS. "

Teacher Highlights Ms. Reilly

I grew up in Canton, MA and once I started working at FHS I learned it was also known as "Can't Win Canton". I am one of three children in my family; another math teacher and engineer...think about our conversations around the dinner table! I had always (I know this may be hard for some of you to believe) really enjoyed math. Hence, I decided to major in Mathematics when I entered the University of Delaware. I was always a very strong willed, independent child...stubborn as the day is long. So I was truly shocked when my parents cried the day they dropped me off at UDel. I was looking forward to being on my own, meeting new people and to start heading towards my goal of graduating and becoming a math teacher. I often saw my peers struggle with math, especially sophomore year when I had to tutor my entire dorm floor. I saw teachers demean students who could not get the problems correct and also saw teachers who tried with all they had to build up the confidence in students, while still maintaining their high expectations. We all go through struggles and joys; be them in our academics, family matters, friendships, etc. These situations and how we decide to deal with them are what makes us who we are. Everything should not come easy, we should have to face adversity to improve our being and we should always be striving to make ourselves proud. My best advice for everyone is to enjoy your family and friends, work hard, and treat others with the respect deserved by all.
